Accessing Hoonuit Learning

Hoonuit (Formally Atomic Learning) is a training resource and professional development tool purchased by the university for use in classes, in departments and for individual training.

Hoonuit can be accessed from the University Links on the Blackboard login page, or through this URL: <https://www.atomiclearning.com/highed/login/smumn>

You will need to log in with your Saint Mary's University username and password (same as the Portal, Blackboard and Gmail).
